DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

These issues have come up now because people think that president Trump, can't handle all the pressure. They don't like that he's doing what he said he would. People are scared of change, and Donald Trump is causing change so most don't like it. There probably will be a split in people's ideals and they will end up fighting. Social media plays a big role in what people think. They believe anything they see so it's easy to influence them. There has also been talk about not bringing in refugees from Syria and deporting illegals.
